

Problem scenario – girls

Sex

Candice is 14 years old and very curious about sex. Candice started seeing Luke who is 17 years old and has a reputation for having sex with the good-looking girls. Luke's family are away for the weekend and Luke invites Candice over. They are making out on the sofa when the doorbell rings. Luke lets in four mates who have brought a lot of beer. As the night goes on they all drink a lot of alcohol and Luke starts to get frisky with Candice again in front of his mates. Luke whispers to Candice, 'Don't worry about the others – they've seen it all before.'

Questions

- ▶ How do you think Candice feels?
- ▶ What do you think of Luke?
- ▶ What will Luke and his friends think of her if she chooses to sleep with him while his friends are watching?
- ▶ What will they think of her if she says 'no'?
- ▶ What risks is she placing herself under?
- ▶ Where does this leave their relationship?
- ▶ What would you do if someone was pressurising you to do something sexually that you didn't want to do?
- ▶ If you could give Candice advice what would it be?

Photocopiable:

Developing Emotional Literacy with Teenagers, 2nd edition © Tina Rae, 2013 (SAGE)